

CORNERSTONE TEEN CENTER

The Cornerstone Teen Center is a safe drop in center for Middle and High School aged tweens and teens located in the Cornerstone Community Center. Activities include basketball, pool, ping pong and foosball. There is a viewing room with a large screen TV to watch movies. Snacks are served most nights.

Volunteers are needed for a variety of services such as:

- Supervising participants during open hours
- Acting as a role model for participants
- Cleaning up after closing
- Helping plan future events

Hours needed:

Volunteers are currently needed for Tuesday and Thursday nights from 5:30 to 7:30 with 15-20 minutes of cleanup time after closing.

Volunteering at the teen center requires exposure to an active environment with lots of noise.
All safety guidelines and procedures for Covid-19 will be followed including wearing gloves and masks and social distancing.
